

TWO SHIPS BLOW UP, HUNDREDS DEAD

TRUMAN TOPS
LIST OF FOES
FOR WALLACEVICE PRESIDENT TO BE IN CHICAGO
THIS MORNING

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Chicago, July 18 (AP)—A sudden surge of support for Senator Harry Truman of Missouri placed him tonight in the top flight of compromise possibilities for the Democratic vice-presidential nomination.

"It's a natural," explained Senator Carl Hatch of New Mexico. "Harry Truman is going to be nominated."

Apparently the shift toward him originated partially with the CIO. Heretofore the big labor organization has given unwavering fealty to the renomination aspirations of President Henry A. Wallace.

But some of Wallace's strength seemed to be drifting away after President Roosevelt gave a weak nod last night to the man he demanded, and got, as a running mate four years ago.

Roosevelt Sure Choice

The vice president, in fact, is on the way to the convention, which opens tomorrow, to try to stem a tide which was turning to some degree toward War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes. Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley and, belatedly, toward Truman.

As for the presidential picture, Mr. Roosevelt's renomination was as certain as ever, but a boomlet continued for Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia. Louisiana followed Mississippi into the Byrd column, voting to cast its 22 votes for him. That made 46 Byrd votes, coming from Florida.

In the vice presidential contest, Truman, chairman of a special senate war investigating committee, was reported reliably to be the second choice of CIO President Philip Murray. The senator was in conference earlier with Sidney Hillman, chairman of the labor organization's political action committee.

As the vice president entrained in Washington for Chicago, Jake More, one of his managers here, said that Senator Joseph Guffey of Pennsylvania had made a new survey which shows the vice president will get "in excess of 300 votes on the first ballot."

Big Handbills Out

For distribution among delegates, the Wallace people turned up with some big handbills, which said:

"If I were a delegate, I would vote for Henry A. Wallace—Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The posters did not add, as did the president, that the final decision on his running mate rests with the convention.

Mr. Roosevelt's statement on the vice presidency gave impetus also to efforts to drum up support for Byrnes and Barkley. Apparently these efforts were taking effect.

The weighty Pennsylvania delegation, yielding 72 votes which the Wallace camp previously claimed in their entirety, took an advisory poll that showed 41 in the Wallace column. Recorded against Wallace or not voting were 21, with 10 absentees.

More, Iowa state senator, sent Wallace a letter urging him to rush to Chicago and shake a few hands. He didn't mail it. He telephoned it to Washington. A

Four-Hour Aerial
Attack Softens Up
Nazis Around Caen

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR

London, Wednesday, July 19 (AP)—Allied warplanes swarming over Europe in the greatest combined air offensive in history yesterday unloaded at least 11,000 tons of explosives on Hitler's fortress, most of them in a 75-mile mile square area around Caen to pave the way for Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's smashing breakthrough on the Orne river front.

Supreme headquarters announced last night that the tremendous air assault was sustained for four hours, starting at dawn over the Caen sector, as waves of heavy, medium and light bombers showered enemy troops, artillery and strongpoints.

No enemy aircraft appeared during the entire bombardment in the Caen area, the high command communique said, disclosing that Allied losses amounted to only nine bombers.

The return of good weather loosed tremendous air power in the devastating quantities needed for maximum support of the battlefront, but Germany itself was not neglected. More than 1,000 American heavy bombers smashed over the Reich both from Britain and Italy, striking at production centers for robot bombs and regulation aircraft.

SHAKE UP GUAMShells Poured Into Jap
Defense Positions
At Close Range

BY EUGENE BURNS

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, July 18 (AP)—Some of Adm. Raymond A. Spruance's heaviest battleships, accompanied by cruisers and destroyers, steamed within "close range" of Guam island on July 16 and poured an earth-shaking bombardment of shells into Japanese defense positions for the second straight day.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported the attack in a press release today. He added that lighter surface units shelled Tinian island, just south of American-conquered Saipan, in a night assault Saturday. The Tinian shelling was continued Sunday.

Meanwhile Admiral Nimitz reported that a "few remaining snipers are being hunted down" on Saipan.

Tinian was hit by Saipan-based planes, field artillery and destroyers. The latter "shelled selected targets" the night of July 15-16 and the day of the 16th.

Simultaneously headquarters announced that 1,620 Japanese troops were made prisoners on Saipan while 13,500 civilians were interned.

So far this month Guam has been attacked 13 times by carrier planes and seven times by surface craft.

CUTS OF BEEF
GO POINT-FREENew Rationing Schedule
Expected To Take Effect Aug. 1

Washington, July 18 (AP)—Most of the beef steaks and roasts now available in butcher shops would become ration point-free under an order prepared by War Food Administrator Marvin Jones, it was learned today.

The order was readied for formal issuance and publication in the federal register tomorrow, with an effective date of August 1, but issuance was postponed probably until July 27. There was some possibility of a change also in the effective date. New point values set by the office of price administration normally would go into effect Sunday, July 30.

The same order authorizes the office of price administration to put hams and pork loins, now point-free, back on the ration list. It was not wholly clear whether part portion of the directive to OPA had the same mandatory force as the portion taking more beef off the point list.

The beef section of the order calls for maintenance of rationing on point-free steaks and roasts—Grades AA and A—with the lower commercial and utility grades to be released.

The new order specifies only hams and pork loins are to go back on the ration list.

Drys Of Michigan
Nominate Ticket

Lansing, July 18 (AP)—The Michigan Prohibition party today nominated the Rev. Seth A. Davey of Hastings, as its candidate for governor and Harold A. Lindahl of Iron River as candidate for lieutenant governor.

Other candidates for state office are John Mason Wells of Hillsdale, secretary of state; the Rev. George Bennett of Albion, author of the hymn "The Old Rugged Cross," state treasurer; William A. Doherty of Detroit, auditor general, and George A. Emerick of Hillsdale, attorney general.

Rev. Davey was leader of the Barry county prohibition drive last spring which was defeated in a special election.

Other nominees will be announced next week.

IN NORMANDY, (by wireless) —"Tank Commander Martin Kennedy of Chicago wanted to show me just where his tank had been hit. As a matter of fact he hadn't seen it for himself, yet, for he came running up the street the moment he jumped out of the tank."

So when the firing died down a little we sneaked up the street until we were almost even with the disabled tank. But we were careful not to get our heads around the corner of the side street, for that was where the Germans had fired from.

The first shell had hit the heavy steel brace that the tread runs on, and then plunged on through the side of the tank, very low.

DEFENSES ARE CRACKED OPEN
AROUND LWOWGAIN OF 31 MILES
MADE BY REDS ON
125-MILE FRONT

BY JUDSON O'QUINN

London, Wednesday, July 19 (AP)—Red armies of the south in a powerful new offensive have cracked strong German defenses around the great bastion of Lwow in old Poland for three-day gains of 31 miles on a 125-mile front, and reached the Bug river within five miles of the frontier from which the Germans attacked the Soviet Union. Moscow announced last night.

Ripping through tottering German lines defending the direct invasion routes to central Germany, the Soviet First Ukraine army was with 22 miles of Lwow, one of the biggest rail terminals in Europe, Premier-Marshall Stalin said in an order of the day.

Troops Race to Baltic
In the far north other Russian troops had smashed eight miles into Latvia with the capture of Pitovka, and were racing toward the Baltic sea in an effort to throw a great noose around hundreds of thousands of German troops.

In the center of the Russian front, which now has been expanded to 550 miles, other Russian armies yesterday plunged to within nine miles of Brest Litovsk and with 22 miles of Bialystok, strongholds defending the plains leading to Warsaw.

The Russians seized Omelinka, nine miles above Brest Litovsk, and Golyinka, 22 miles northeast of Bialystok, in an onrush which has carried Soviet troops to a point only about 100 miles from Warsaw, Polish capital which fell to the Germans in September, 1939.

Forty-five miles north of Lwow another Russian group captured Skomorokh, on the Bug river five miles north of Sokal, 150 miles to the northwest in the 1939 German-Russian demarcation line established after the partition of Poland. The boundary follows the Bug to that point, then swings southwestward beyond Lwow.

Main Railway Severed
Lokachi, 16 miles southwest of Vladimir-Volynski, and Poritsk, the same distance south of that rail junction on a secondary route linking Lwow and Kovel, were captured in the new Russian breakthrough. The main trunkline between Lwow and Kovel already had been severed with the capture of Kamionka, the nearest point to Lwow reached by the Russians.

The fall of Lwow would find the Germans greatly handicapped because of the lack of natural defense lines between Lwow and the German Silesia border, 230 miles to the west. But the appar-

Secret Buzz-Bomb
Studied At Dayton

Dayton, O., July 18 (AP)—Army air force aerial command officers at Wright Field disclosed today that a Nazi robot bomb had been shipped here from England, and was being studied closely in an attempt to learn all its secrets.

Major Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, commanding general, said the bomb was put together from the parts of several such "secret weapons" which descended on southern England.

Nazi Line Broken
Along Orne River;
Yanks Take St. Lo

BY JAMES M. LONG

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, Wednesday, July 19 (AP)—British and Canadian armored forces broke through the German line across the Orne river at the eastern end of the Normandy front Tuesday in a full-scale offensive which was rolling in dust southeastward across the Caen plain this morning with a power recalling the historic British assault at El Alamein.

On the American sector to the west, Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's doughboys captured the hillside hinge stronghold at St. Lo after an eight-day battle, forcing a German withdrawal of a mile to a mile and a half and threatening a crumbling of the Nazi positions westward all the way to the coast.

On Way To Paris
Using airpower instead of the artillery barrage for which he is famed, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery opened the onslaught in the Caen area at dawn under cover of the greatest aerial bombardment since D-Day—a crushing assault by 2,200 bombers of all types which pounded the enemy with 7,000 tons of explosives and moved along just ahead of powerful forces of tanks and infantrymen.

General Montgomery struck at the gateway to interior France, driving into the heart of the Nazi's strongest positions, protecting the route eastward to Paris, 120 miles away.

Heavy fighting was raging tonight, with the Britons and Canadians cleaning out the town of Vaucelles on the south side of the Orne opposite Caen and strong armored and mobile forces spreading out into the Caen plain-open, ideal tank fighting country south-east of the city, seven to ten miles wide and extending 20 miles southwestward all the way to Falaise.

The new offensive, announced in the first special press conference called at supreme headquarters since D-Day, caught the Germans by surprise, and the headquarters statement said "General Montgomery is well satisfied with the progress made in the first day's fighting of this battle."

Within the space of two hours starting at 5:45 a. m., 7,000 tons of high explosives were cascaded upon the German defense, Associated Press Correspondent Don Whitely wrote from the Caen front. A witness of the spectacular air bombardment, Greene said the assault was carried deep into the enemy rear.

On the American front the break in the battle for St. Lo, the hardest for the Americans since their landing on the Normandy beaches, came suddenly this morning as the Germans began trying to pull away. Associated Press Correspondent Don Whitely wrote from the rubble town tonight. The first American troops entered the outskirts of the town at 10 a. m., and tonight marched in triumph through the streets of the main town itself.

Logie, the only Republican among the legislative defendants on trial before a circuit court jury on the charge, was the first respondent to take the witness stand. Counsel for former state senators D. Stephen Benzie, of Norway, Mich., and Henry F. Shea, of Laurium, and Lansing, said they probably would be the next defendants to testify in their own behalf.

In addition to 17 legislators and former legislators accused of taking bribes, five officials of finance companies are on trial in the conspiracy case, accused of raising a "slush" fund to "buy" the legislators' votes.

"I never received one cent of money to influence my vote," Logie testified in direct examination. He reiterated this in brief cross examination by Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler.

Earlier in the trial Maj. Charles F. Hemans, a lobbyist, and Joseph C. Roosevelt, Hemans' assistant, testified for the state that they had paid $400 to Logie to influence his vote on bills affecting interests of the finance company defendants.

Hitler's Gestapo Takes Command In Northern France

London, Wednesday, July 19 (AP)—Uneasy over the prospect of new Allied landings, Hitler has created a new anti-invasion command in Belgium and northern France and at the same time taken civilian control in the region out of the hands of the military and placed it under the Gestapo.

A dual shakeup, announced in a broadcast by DNB, German official news agency, placed Joseph Goebbels, 42-year-old high officer of Hitler's Elite Guards, as gauleiter of the entire region and gave the military command to Infantry Gen. Graef.

The new setup ousted Col. Gen. Alexander von Falkenhausen, a friend of Field Marshal Karl von Rundstedt, who had been commander of Belgium and Holland since May 20, 1940, and subsequently of northern France.

Hitler himself issued the decree, DNB said, and stated that the change took place yesterday at Brussels.

JUMPS TO DEATH
New York, July 19 (AP)—A man, identified as George H. Baker, Jr., of Springfield, Conn., hurtled to his death today from a 64th floor window of the Chrysler building, landing on the roof of a fifth floor extension.

Grigg gave no details, except to say the Germans had reported 27 of the fliers killed during attempts at escape. But it was learned in London tonight that they were cut down, not in a group, but in various breaks from prison camps or trains.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Port Chicago, Calif., July 18 (AP)—An explosion of two naval ammunition ships in the worst disaster of its kind in the nation's history left a toll of dead approaching 350 today as rescue workers poked through the rubble in search of more bodies.

The twin blasts late last night, shaking 14 counties and felt 80 miles away, shattered this town of 1,500 and wrecked the two freighters, the 10,000-ton Quinault Victory and the 7,500-ton E. A. Bryant. The ships were loading ammunition at the Port Chicago naval ammunition supply depot, on an arm of San Francisco Bay some 35 miles northeast of San Francisco.

The blasts sprayed hot metal over a two-mile area. One ship's anchor was found a half mile away.

RED CROSS ON JOB
San Francisco, July 18 (AP)—The Red Cross was on the job today in the devastated Port Chicago area and in nearby towns, providing the explosion victims with food, lighting facilities, and temporary living quarters.

Hundreds of telegrams have been sent to relatives of persons who were in or might have been caught in the disaster.

The Port Chicago ammunition magazine. In addition, possibly 70 members of the crews of the two ships lost their lives. A number of civilian workers on the docks were killed. The navy said "at least 200 to 250" of its loading crewmen died. The list of injured may reach 1,000, including those hurt by flying glass.

At 10:19 o'clock last night a rule came to the waterfront. The freighter Bryant, carrying thousands of tons of explosives, disintegrated in billowing clouds of red and white flame.

The great blast flattened everything around. As the reverberations swept across the water, the Victory ship Quinault exploded with a thunder that shook the hills.

Navy barracks were flattened. Wires, trees, poles, marsh grass—everything, was borne to earth. The pier from which loading operations were being carried on simply disappeared. Two small Coast Guard boats were crushed and five Coast Guardsmen are missing.

Hospitals Jammed
Nearly every window in Port Chicago was smashed, and some were broken in Vacaville, about 50 miles away.

Emergency calls brought doctors and nurses from everywhere in the bay area. Ice wagons were turned into ambulances. Operating rooms were set up wherever facilities could be established. Hospitals were jammed, their corridors crowded. At the height of the turmoil a baby was born to Mrs. Mark E. Hatch at Martinez community hospital. At a Red Cross receiving station the steps were drenched with blood from wounds.

Great explosions were witnessed by Jack McDowell of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin news staff. He was at Orinda, 20 miles from Port Chicago.

LOST COUPONS CAUSE TROUBLE

Not All Applications In Good Faith, Local Board Hints

A sharp increase in the number of applications for replacement of lost ration books, principally gasoline ration books, has convinced the Delta county rationing board that there is "something fishy" about the whole business.

Officials of the local board indicated that a normal flow of applications for replacement of lost ration books is expected, the tendency to misplace articles being a common trait of humanity, but the sharp increase in these applications has resulted in a growing suspicion that not all of the applications are being made in good faith. The rationing board is using up their gasoline allowances too rapidly and then are appealing to the board for new coupons, conceding that the old ones have been lost.

Waiting Period
"We are checking carefully on every application for ration replacements," C. Emery Snyder, board chairman, reported. "All such applications for replacement must be made out in duplicate, and where the conditions warrant, we are asking the district enforcement officers to investigate." The local board has emphasized that a waiting period, varying from 10 to 60 days, has been established before replacement coupons are issued. In certain cases where this waiting period would result in undue hardship, the waiting period may be waived by the board. When the ration loss is caused by the lack of reasonable care, the board may refuse to replace the missing coupons.

"Ration coupons are as valuable as money and the possessor of such coupons is expected to protect them in the same manner that he protects his money," James E. Anderson, board clerk, said.

Not all of the board's troubles are with the unprecedented increase in lost rations, however. Faulty applications for rations constitute an equally difficult situation.

Faulty Applications
A large percentage of the gasoline ration applications being returned to the local board are being returned to the applicants for one or more reasons. Some lack the tire inspection records that must accompany all such applications, many are unsigned and others lack the signature of employers, which are necessary for the issuance of occupational mileage.

The same troubles confront the clerks handling applications for canning sugar. Applicants are reminded that spare stamp No. 37 must be affixed to the applications for canning sugar, and not sugar stamp No. 37. Applicants also must state the amount of canning sugar desired, up to a maximum of 20 pounds per person. Most important, the applications must be signed by the person making the application.

Lansing, July 18 (AP)—Michigan municipalities set up a cry today for a "fairer" share of state auto tax money, arguing that they were bearing an undue share of the cost of operating city streets in comparison with the expenses laid to rural residents.

Stanley M. Powell, chairman of a sub-committee of the state tax study commission, told a public hearing staged by the commission that his group was considering a proposal which would lighten the burden on some municipalities without necessitating a thorough revision of existing statutes governing the distribution of gas and weight taxes to local governments.

He said it had been proposed that the state take over payment of the unpaid covert road bonds, amounting to about $8,000,000, so that municipalities might not be edged out of their greater share of such distribution by the legal necessity for paying off the old bonds first.

Powell said the committee felt that cities were not receiving enough state aid for streets and that their share might be distributed according to a new formula.

Chicago, July 18 (AP)—The race question developed tonight as the most troublesome problem confronting the party's platform framers as the CIO joined in demands for a strong declaration on the racial issue.

Philip Murray, president of the labor organization, went before the platform committee, as a group of embittered southerners organized to oppose any plank declaring for racial equality.

"God help America," Murray declared, "if when this war is won overseas we should find ourselves plunged here into a terrifying war of hatred."

He said the party "should not avoid a strong declaration on racial, religious or minority questions. It should not equivocate."

Murray also demanded abolition of the poll tax, levied in several southern states, and was joined in this position by other witnesses. The Rev. Richard Morford of New York read a statement he said was prepared by Jennings Perry, editor of the Nashville Tennessean, asking for a party pledge that congress "exercise its full constitutional power" to protect the right to vote.

Legion Offers Plank

The platform must be ready for convention action on Thursday, and some of the framers were considering the possibility of repeating the words of the 1940 platform, which said:

"We shall continue to strive for complete legislative safeguards against discrimination in government service and benefits, and in the national defense forces. We pledge to uphold due process and the equal protection of the laws for every citizen, regardless of race, creed or color."

The Republicans wrote into their platform a plank calling for a permanent FEPC, and for anti-lynching and anti-poll tax legislation.

The American Legion, largest organization of war veterans, called upon the Democratic convention today to embody in the party platform a plank declaring for new war participation of this country in an association of nations to use "whatever force may be necessary" to maintain world peace.

The Legion stand coincided with a "permanent peace" plank already drawn by Chairman Tom Connolly of the senate foreign relations committee, reported to call for the employment of arms by cooperating nations—to nip in the bud any aggression by war-like nations.

NIPPONESE STARVE

Southeast Asia Command headquarters, Kandy, Ceylon, July 18 (AP)—Battered Japanese troops fleeing southward through the Manipur Hills after collapse of their invasion of eastern India have been overtaken by hunger and, with some at the "actual starvation point," are surrendering in increasing numbers. Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's headquarters announced today.

It takes six men a day and a half to clean the crystal chandeliers in the East Room at the White House.

School Census In Townships Reveals 238 Less Children

There are 238 less children of school age in townships of Delta county this year, it is disclosed by census figures released by the office of C. P. Titus, county commissioner of schools.

This is in comparison with 1943 figures.

The largest loss is in Wells township which has 87 less than a year ago. Escanaba township with 27 and Bark River with 25 suffered the next heaviest losses.

While eleven townships showed losses, three showed gains. These were very small, two in Baldwin, two in Bay de Noquet and one in Cornell.

All children from 5 to 19 years, inclusive, are enumerated in the census. The census is used as a basis when apportioning school aid monies.

Comparative census figures:

Township	1943	1944
Baldwin	250	252
Bay de Noe	431	406
Brampton	161	147
Cornell	172	173
Ensign	160	143
Escanaba	366	339
Fairbanks	162	151
Ford River	238	221
Garden	237	222
Maple Ridge and Ewing Township	317	306
Nahma	388	382
Wells	757	670
Totals	4366	4128

Mother Of Escanaba Resident Is Stricken

Mrs. Joseph Allard, 76, 511 Terrace Avenue, Marinette, mother of Mrs. Dewey Meunier, city, died Sunday afternoon at her home. She had been in failing health for some time.

Born in Canada, Nov. 25, 1867, Mrs. Allard had been a resident of Marinette for the past 60 years. Mr. Allard died in April of this year.

Funeral services are to be held in St. Joseph's Catholic church in Marinette at 9 o'clock this morning with the Rev. Fr. Omer Champagne offering the requiem. Burial will be in Forest Home cemetery.

DEFENSES ARE CRACKED OPEN AROUND LWOW

ent Russian effort is directed at by-passing that stronghold and reaching the plains without waiting for other units to crack Lwow frontally.

More than 3,500 Germans were killed on the northern sector during the day, and 2,000 were killed in the strike at Brest Litovsk, the bulletin said. In addition to the penetration within nine miles of Brest Litovsk on the north, another Soviet group toppled the Zhabinka rail junction, 14 miles northeast of the stronghold.

Vengeance Bombs Hit Britain Again

London, Wednesday, July 19, (AP)—A number of persons were feared killed as Hitler's vengeance flying bombs zoomed over southern England early today.

One landed in a garage and wrecked a home. It was the second time within a few days that a bomb struck this same district.

that literally filled the sky with flame," he said. "It was followed by other flashes of less intensity and then a dull, very odd, orangeish glow that seemed to hang on the sky for as long as 10 or 15 minutes. Then it all went black."

George Wildes, policeman from nearby Pittsburg, said "It looked like a lot of fireworks—big sparklers going up and trickling down. A huge ball of fire in the middle going straight up."

Both Vessels New

Fifty miles away, the seismograph of Santa Clara university registered the blast for two minutes.

The Quinault, built in Portland, had been in service one week, to the very day before it was demolished into pieces the size of shell fragments. The Bryan, named for the former president of Washington State college, was launched at the Kaiser Richmond shipyards last February.

Unquestionably no trace whatever will be found of most of those who perished in the disaster. In fact, the instant of the explosions they simply ceased to be.

Monetary loss will run into many millions of dollars. The big Victory ships, of the class of the Quinault, cost around $3,000,000 to build and outfit. The small Liberty ship of the Bryan class, around $1,300,000. Property damage in Port Chicago and in several neighboring towns was great.

One naval officer, asked about the loss of life, told reporters who inquired about the condition of the loading dock. "You wouldn't want to go down there—or write about what you see down there." He said that of 250 navy men who were on the docks when the explosions came, "none of them has come back up yet."

The army sped tank trucks of chlorine treated water to northern Contra Costa towns as an emergency drinking supply. The explosions had crippled pumping systems in seven cities.

Small pieces of the exploded ships littered the countryside for a mile and a half to two miles around.

Dazed residents of Port Chicago told of the tragedy in simple words. First, the earth shook, they said. Then glass and beams crashed about them. Finally, there was a gigantic roar. That was all. Except for the screams of the injured and the terror-stricken that rose throughout the area.

Capt. N. H. Goss of Rockville, Ind., commanding officer at the ammunition magazine, commented "We have no basis for giving any cause of the explosion, as there are no close survivors to give evidence of what happened."

Capt. Goss explained that enlisted men are used in loading ammunition at the depot, and "yesterday's operation was merely a routine one, as we have loaded many, many ships at the port."

TOTS ENJOY CIRCUS DAY

Full Houses See Dailey
Brothers Show Here
On Tuesday

Tuesday was a great day for the children of Escanaba and surrounding territory, it was circus day. The big tent was crowded with children in the afternoon and at night the children seemed to average a few more years.

Not the largest circus, it still was one that presented a good show. Older circus goers found it a pleasant contrast from some remembered shows. Animals, performers and equipment were clean, surprisingly clean.

The clowns drew wave after wave of laughter and the aerialists brought forth "Oh's" and "Ah's," but it was the animals that got the big hand. Outstanding performances were probably the older couple in colonial costume who presented a bareback act on white horses and the balancing act on the high swing by a Filipino.

The circus, with its sleek and well trained animals and pleasing young performers is gone, showing in another town today, but hundreds of Escanaba children will hold it in memory for a long time. Swings and flying rings will go up in many yards, dogs and cats will become caged animals in the revival of "pin" shows that is sure to come now in most every neighborhood.

Delegates Called To GOP Convention

The delegates listed as elected to represent the precincts of the county in the Republican county convention to be held at 8 o'clock Thursday night at the Delta county courthouse are urged to attend by one spokesman for the party last night, who said, "These persons are the legally qualified delegates and they should be there."

For those who cannot attend, the spokesman advised that they appoint substitutes from their precincts to take their places. All persons interested in the Republican party have been invited to attend by officers of the county organization.

Herb Rushton Coming Home

OFFICIAL announcement on Monday by Atty. General Herbert J. Rushton that he will not be a candidate for renomination to the important state office he has held for the past four years, marks the retirement from public life of one of the most colorful figures ever to achieve a high place in political circles of this state.

A rugged individualist who throughout a busy life-time, much of it spent in public service, has held honesty of purpose and action a cardinal principle of his career, the man who has held the office of attorney general of Michigan longer than any other individual since former Governor Alex Groesbeck, is to return to his home town of Escanaba, probably to re-establish himself, in a limited measure, in the practice of his profession.

Mr. Rushton retires from politics and the office he has held with such credit for the past four years, with a record of which he may well be proud. Never since he assumed the office of attorney general has it been charged that his office rendered a "political" opinion in any matter. He persistently insisted upon the interpretation of the law as he found it and "let the chips fall where they may". He has not hesitated to rub politicians in high places the wrong way, if his interpretation of the law and his sense of honesty, dictated such a course. It is that fact and that quality, generally recognized by the people of Michigan, that would have made it easy for Mr. Rushton to win renomination and reelection had he chosen to pursue such a course in the coming campaign.

After serving in his earlier years several terms as prosecuting attorney of his home county, Mr. Rushton represented the Thirtieth Michigan senatorial district for a longer period than any other individual for many years. When Michigan sales tax department needed a strong hand to guide it through an emergency that threatened the existence of that vital department of state government, Mr. Rushton was selected by the late Gov. Luren D. Dickinson for that job. He promptly cleaned out the political cliques that permeated that department and laid the foundations for the present highly efficient Michigan Department of Revenue. His record in that important job, made Mr. Rushton his party's logical candidate for the office of attorney general, to which has been twice elected and will close his term of service at the end of the present year.

The "home folks" of Mr. Rushton's home town and county will applaud his decision to return to association with those who know him best, that they may share with him the honors he has so decisively won for himself and his home community.

Recreation Expands

WHILE Escanaba has had a full-time supervised recreation department for some years now, there are quite a number of cities that have only recently made this addition to their municipal services.

The city council of St. Paul recently recreated a recreation commission of 25 members to survey recreational facilities and programs and act as a coordinating agency in the field of recreation to advise the proper authorities as to recreational needs.

Two neighboring Michigan communities—Muskegon and Muskegon Heights, of 47,000 and 16,000 population respectively—adopted year-round recreation programs recently. Muskegon's total recreation budget is $16,000, Muskegon Heights' $11,500. Both cities will appoint full-time recreation directors.

The need for well organized programs has become more apparent in cities now that the nation is at war. This is particularly true in the industrial centers, where children must be given something to do while their parents are working in war plants. War workers also need opportunity to relieve the occupational strain in healthful recreational activities. This is being recognized by many large industries, which are now installing their own supervised play departments. Industrial recreation, in fact, is now competing with the municipal departments for the services of trained recreational directors.

Going Back to Guam

THE sustained bombardment of the island of Guam, former U. S. outpost wrested by the Japs early in the Pacific war, gives rise to the supposition that the American flag will soon fly once more over this far Pacific base. The invasion of Guam by American forces is a foregone conclusion and the terrific shelling of the island by naval guns and aerial bombing is designed to reduce enemy resistance.

When Guam is again returned to American possession, that tiny island will stand as a warning to all Americans of the need for vigilance and national preparedness. In pre-Pearl Harbor days, every effort to build up the defenses of Guam against the rising tide of Japanese imperialism was met with frustration because of the opposition from isolationists in congress.

Today American doughboys are forced to shed their blood—many will pay the supreme sacrifice—because of this lack of foresight. The sustained shelling of the island, the heaviest by far against any Pacific island on the American invasion schedule, is designed to reduce this cost in blood to the lowest level possible.

Once again in our hands, Guam, with one of the finest harbors in the Pacific, will be reconstructed to a mighty bastion of American preparedness in the far East. We can do no less than to keep it that way.

Postwar Aviation

APPLICATIONS for air mail, express and passenger routes to serve the Upper Peninsula are only a part of the nationwide rush for franchises by old and newly organized companies.

Surveys are being made over the nation for the purpose of determining postwar demands for air express and air freight. When one looks at a map showing the design for America's worldwide air routes, the importance of such preparation and coordination of the facilities to be offered the public becomes self-evident.

According to postwar plans now on paper, the United States expects that its international airlines will fly 140,000 miles, 60,000 of those miles over new routes. Where, before the war, passengers were the principal load, it is expected that air express and freight will add tremendously to the future cargo of the airlines.

Fortunately, the United States has express facilities in almost every hamlet, which, under a coordinated pick-up and delivery system, are rendering service that can be extended to meet any future air transport requirements.

Goebbels Changes Tune

PROPAGANDA Minister Goebbels is broadcasting threats of the development of another German secret weapon, more terrifying than the robot bomb.

This is apparently being done to soothe the people on the German home front, who have been taking terrific punishment from the daily raids by Allied bombing planes. The German civilians need something different than the discouraging news of continued Nazi setbacks in Normandy, Italy and Russia to keep up their morale.

But there is evidence that Goebbels, himself, realizes that the jig is up. The OWI office reports that the Nazi propaganda chief at the same time has started a campaign to win mercy from the Allies after the German downfall. His appeals are directed to the United States and Britain to soften their demands for unconditional surrender, and in an article in a leading German newspaper he contended that Germany had never "proclaimed the same program of extermination and destruction as our enemies."

Whether Germany has made this proclamation or not, the facts are that the Nazis exterminated the entire population of the Czech village of Lidice and murdered in cold blood thousands of other innocent civilians in Norway, France, Holland and other countries conquered by Hitler. Many of the Nazi leaders, who were responsible for these atrocities, are known and will someday have to pay the penalty for their crimes.

There is no intention on the part of the Allies to wreak their vengeance on the innocent civilians of Germany. Justice will be dealt to the guilty Nazi political and army leaders, however. Obviously, Goebbels is making a plea for mercy for himself, Hitler, Himmler and his other evil henchmen.

THE DEFEAT OF BOSSISM (Grand Rapids Press)

The Home Front victory over the McKay organization slate of delegates in Kent county is encouraging in its substantial majority and its evidence that Republicans in general want the party returned to the people rather than to control by the few. Candidates and county committeemen have very clear evidence to guide their policies in the next two years.

One swallow doesn't make a summer nor one election a lasting victory for the forces of good government. The first test of Home Front competence will be one of fairness, and we have no doubt it will be met. There will be no reason to repeat the 1942 mistake of the old organization in refusing to reflect county convention strength accurately in choosing delegates to the state convention. The delegation should be picked on a proportionate basis as proven by the county delegate totals. The Home Fronters in the past have made it clear that they regard this as the only just method of reflecting factional strength within the party; it is also the fair way of holding the party together, despite factional differences, for the primary purpose of unity at the election.

We have confidence that Tuesday's decision on delegates is nothing essentially new; it represents the way the rank and file of the party have felt all the time about bossism. The Home Front carried the city in 1942. But the primary this year was the first clearest chance to decide the issue, with full slates of delegates on both sides clearly put forward by the two groups, with County Chairman Waer expressing himself forcefully on one side and Mr. McKay accepting the challenge and expressing himself with equal vigor on the other. The decision should be accepted fairly, in the American way, and the victors should take every step to see that the party benefits in unity and in strength by this reflection of the true will of its majority.

The Round Table

BY RAYMOND MOLEY

Russian demands at Bretton Woods for a larger share in the proposed credit pool provide more evidence of the Soviet's plans about what she will be doing in the years after the war. What seems to be taking definite shape is a ten-year plan leading to a vast industrial set-up, which will be second only to that of the United States. Russia's peace terms, so far as they have been revealed, all point to that goal.

From time to time, indications of Russian economic plans have come from the Russian World Economic Institute, whose head is Professor Eugene Varga. In an article last October, in "War and the Working Class," Professor Varga outlined what was in store for Germany in the form of claims on German manpower. The plan would not only compel Germans to rebuild what they destroyed, but it would also involve a large claim for German machinery and commodities.

—RUSSIA ASKS INDEMNITY—
Since then, Russia has followed the same pattern in the rejected terms of peace she made to Finland. She demanded payment of approximately $600,000,000 payable over a number of years in commodities produced in Finland. Rumania and Hungary will doubtless get the same medicine in much larger doses.

Two months ago, an account of Russian plans for purchases here appeared in the American press. The figure mentioned was a billion dollars a year for ten years. The goods desired were materials for power plants, telephone and telegraph equipment, machinery, machine tools and a limited amount of railway equipment. We may assume that there will be additional purchases from England, Sweden and other industrial countries.

—NEED PEACE FOR GROWTH—
It is impossible to estimate with any accuracy the size of the industrial plant that will be created by this ten-year plan, for Russia may get less in reparations than she wants, and difficulties over credit may cut down her purchases here and elsewhere. But, considering the fact that for every dollar's worth of industrial equipment imported, Russia can produce two or three more with her vast resources in materials and labor, the total value of the Russian plant will certainly be second only to our own within ten years. It is easy to see why Russia, with this objective in mind, should desire to get as large a share as possible in the credit pool under consideration at Bretton Woods and why Russia is not going to be content to occupy third place among the world's industrial powers.

There is a measure of reassurance in this prospect, because it is not likely that a country already self-sufficient in natural resources will disturb the peace in quests for new territory. Industrial growth requires peace; and industrial rehabilitation and expansion seem to be the Russian goals for years to come.

Answer: Reminds one of the man who was shot in the foot in the yard and died by inches. Such expressions as "miles and miles, lots and lots, oodles and oodles," are what I should call "feminine intensives." They have no place in serious speech or writing, and men should avoid them altogether.

OUR VIEWPOINT—Occasional-ly the Bugler has touched on topics of a highly controversial nature. In writing on these topics this columnist has ever kept upmost the desire to present information for a better public understanding of the issues involved. There is always a dividing line between selfish interest, and public welfare and public good. Sometimes this division is not quite clear, and all too often selfish interest is presented as the means toward attainment of public good. In such instances it is the responsibility of persons who know the facts to present them to the public, so the people themselves will have some voice in framing a policy for the future. All too often the few have decreed what is good for the people, while the people have known only what the few permit them to know.

Any situation affecting the public, in which this public is permitted to have only such information as the few believe it should have, needs a strong antidote of free and open discussion. Only in this way will the people know and recognize their interest, and demand that public interest come first. In this way their duly elected representatives, the public officials, will know that good business for the people is good politics — and that good politics is good business.

The only persons who fear open and free discussion are those whose selfish or political interest would suffer thereby.

WORKING ON IT—Owners of property along M-35 on the bay shore between Escanaba and Menominee will be pleased to hear that, at long last, the state highway department is preparing to complete its surveys for the location of this trunkline highway.

Highway M-35 is one of Delta county's most scenic state roads. During the pre-war tourist traffic days it was more popular because of its shoreline routing, than US-241 for northbound traffic into the Upper Peninsula.

But somehow the state never got around to completing a survey for the permanent location of M-35. Parts of the route were surveyed, other parts were not surveyed. Meanwhile the property owners along the bay shore have been left in a state of suspended animation, so far as property improvements were concerned. The man who wanted to build a summer cottage or locate a garage on his property didn't know where they would be in relation to the highway because the state highway department itself hadn't decided where the road would go.

A. A. Anderson, state highway department engineer in the Upper Peninsula, said the other day that these several uncompleted surveys are being studied in Lansing, and that additional surveys will be made as necessary to complete the routing. Then, come the postwar period, M-35 can be improved and completed as the county's outstanding scenic route—and the shortest mileage route to Menominee.

SWEARING ON BUSES—There comes the Bugler's desk the following letter, signed by "An Appreciative Rider" from Wells:
"I think it's about time something was done about the transportation situation between Escanaba and the surrounding communities, mainly on the Delta Transfer buses.

On numerous occasions I have, in riding these buses, heard some amount of talk which I considered unfit for a woman to hear. If this language comes with the service I think the service would be better without it.

"It seems the driver cannot cope with the situation, which is

PUBLIC SERVICE—The Michigan election laws need correction in more than one regard, but perhaps most important change for the better would be to speed up the official vote-tallying machinery.

The way it stands now in Michigan the newspapers and the news services do all the work gathering unofficial election returns, candidates concede, and others are elected—all on the strength of unofficial returns! But with the antiquated election laws, it's the only thing that can be done. If the candidates, and the public, depended on the election officials to give them the returns, it would be anywhere from a week to two weeks before anyone would know which way the election went. Take Delta county as an example. The recent primary election was held Tuesday, and official figures were not available until Saturday night.

What the state needs then is a law making it mandatory for election returns to be made from the precincts to the county clerk as soon as the tally is completed, then immediate delivery of the ballot boxes, and at least the following day the start of the official count in the clerk's office. In this way there would be an immediate unofficial report, and quickly thereafter the official figures would be available.

The way it stands now the newspapers and press services are spending their own money to provide the public with information that a simple speeding up of the vote tallying machinery would provide with (perhaps) greater speed and accuracy.

The Lyons Den

NEW YORK — Travel Note: Charles Gilston, owner of the Monarch Wine Co., has a Georgia plantation where a large number of German prisoners of war are employed as peach pickers. Gilston visited the plantation recently and heard one prisoner making a long speech in German, while pointing to Gilston. He asked: "You baronaid," Clive Brooks finally told the boys, "is Beatrice Lillie." "Really?" gasped the Americans. "Bea Lillie?" Then they went to the bar and ordered more drinks from her, while their spokesman told the star: "Don't be disheartened, Miss Lillie. Everyone has ups and downs. We're with you, and we're sure that you'll be up there again."

THEATRE: Beatrice Lillie and Clive Brook were at a village near London. They entered a tavern, but found no one to serve them. A few minutes later a group of American soldiers arrived. Miss Lillie went behind the bar and served their orders. "Your baronaid," Clive Brooks finally told the boys, "is Beatrice Lillie." "Really?" gasped the Americans. "Bea Lillie?" Then they went to the bar and ordered more drinks from her, while their spokesman told the star: "Don't be disheartened, Miss Lillie. Everyone has ups and downs. We're with you, and we're sure that you'll be up there again."

COMPLAINT DEPT.: Ethel Barrymore's son, Sam Colt, an enlisted spent a few days at an isolated, hot Army camp which had no recreational facilities and was more than 200 miles away from a city. "Conditions are so tough here," Colt wrote his mother, "that even the Chaplains are going over the hill."

BUSINESS DEPT.: A noted writer whose stories have been appearing in one magazine for many years suddenly suspected that the editors were buying his stories only because of his name and not because of the quality of his output. He decided to test it, and submitted one of his new stories to the same magazine, but used a fictitious name. In due time came the reply—a rejection slip.

WASHINGTON DEPT.: Peter Bergson, head of the Emergency Committee to Save the Jews of Europe, is a 34-year-old Palestinian. His group purchased the Iranian Embassy in Washington, and operates from there. Bergson, campaigning to open the doors of Palestine, has incurred the wrath of the British. . . . A long time ago Bergson volunteered for service in the American Army. He was unable to pass the physical, because of his stomach ulcers, and was classified 4-F. But now the over-28-year-old Bergson has been reclassified to 1-A and will report for induction on July 19. He is fighting this decision to draft him, insisting only that he be permitted to volunteer.

DECORATION DEPT.: A few days ago a service men's dance was held at the Ashford General Hospital in North Carolina. German prisoners assisted in the preparations. The Nazis used Japanese lanterns as decorations for the dance hall for the American veterans.

BOOK DEPT.: John O'Hara, the novelist, for many years believed that the book reviewers of N. Y. weren't receiving proper recognition from the people of New York. O'Hara once passed a newsboy who was shouting his extras loudly—sing-singing the headlines of the day. O'Hara purchased the newsboy's 50 papers and gave vent to his long suppressed desire to give book reviewers their due. "Extra! Read all about it! Extra! All about it!" the novelist shouted. "Read all about it!"—and then he quoted from the critics' reviews of the books of that day.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON
(Lt. Col. Robert S. Allen now on active service with the Army)

Chicago—Those who have carefully dug into the history of the Electoral College admit privately that Jim Farley's legal counselors, who hatched the idea of electors disregarding the popular vote, did some smart thinking, not from the viewpoint of a fair election but in regard to historic precedent.

Most famous case in which the electors flouted the majority of voters was in the election of 1876 between Hayes and Tilden. But there have been other interesting and more recent cases, though they didn't upset a national election or attract much attention. For instance:

In the Teddy Roosevelt-Alton B. Parker election of 1904, Maryland cast seven electoral votes for Parker and only one for Roosevelt, though Roosevelt had the majority of the popular vote by the very slight margin of 109,497 to 109,446. . . . In the Taft-Bryan contest of 1908, Maryland electors again ignored the will of the people by voting 6 to 2 for Bryan, though Taft got a slight edge of the popular vote by 116,513 to 115,908. . . . California fight by a 2 to 11 vote in the Electoral College for no particular reason. Wilson ran second in the popular vote, with Roosevelt first, but two electors disregarded this and voted for Wilson anyway.

History is dotted with isolated cases where a few electors bolted the wishes of the people of their State and voted as they pleased. This, it must be admitted, was what the Constitution specified, though general custom has ruled otherwise.

In the McKinley-Bryan contest of 1896, one California elector plumped for Bryan, though the people of the State voted for McKinley. One Kentuckian did the same thing in the same election. . . . Michigan in 1892 saw only 9 of its electors vote for Benjamin Harrison and 5 for Grover Cleveland, though Harrison got the popular vote. . . . Ohio cast one electoral vote for Cleveland in the same election, though Harrison carried the State by a slender margin.

FAMOUS ELECTION DISPUTES—
During most of history, however, no large group of electors have dreamed of resisting the sentiment of their State. On the two occasions when they did, the country approached the brink of revolution. . . . Edward S. Corwin, noted legal historian, has called an elector who breaks his trust "an electoral Benedict Arnold." "An elector," he says, "is an abortive organism. He is not merely functionless, he is dangerous."

The deadly row between Jefferson and Aaron Burr arose over votes in the Electoral College and the contest had to be settled in the House of Representatives. Actually, Burr was only supposed to be Vice Presidential candidate, and Jefferson's real opponent was John Adams. . . . But the mix-up over electoral votes led subsequently to Burr's political bitterness and the wreck of his career in his trial for treason and exile.

In the famous Tilden-Hayes contest in 1876, Samuel Tilden, a Democrat, got the majority of the popular vote by a quarter-million margin, and was declared elected by the newspapers. However, carpet-bag Governors of several Southern States refused to follow the popular returns and instructed their delegates to the Electoral College to vote for Hayes. Duplicate and contradictory returns on the popular vote had been sent in, and so, after a bitter debate which nearly threw the country into bloodshed, the dispute was thrashed out in Congress, and Hayes was declared President. . . . Trouble probably was averted only because Tilden advised his followers to accept the decision.

All of this background indicates why FDR's politicos, though not admitting it publicly, are scrutinizing credentials carefully and are not at all happy about the Electoral College threat in the South.

DEMOCRATIC PAYROLL—
The Democrats are going into this convention with a payroll of 52 employees, drawing salaries of $4,476.91 a week — which is less than any payroll in previous years. Money-raising is a lot tougher these days, and the party is economizing.

Here is the list of the main regulars who have done the spade-work to put across the Chicago convention and will carry the ball from here on:

Chairman Bob Hannegan, $1,538.44 monthly; publicity director Paul Porter, $1,153.84; assistant to the chairman Charley Michelson, $1,000; William M. Boyle, $538.48; Edgar Brown, $500; Robert M. Moore, $500; Joseph Berger, $600; Lorena Hickok, $461.52; George F. Willson, $400; Mae Oliver, $240—all monthly.

The staff will be expanded, but not too much unless they are volunteer workers. Financial pickings are too slim.

MERRY-GO-ROUND—
Oklahoma's Governor Bob Kerr has sprinkled his Democratic Convention keynote speech with Biblical phrases. For years, despite his many other duties, Governor Kerr has found time to teach Sunday School. . . . It isn't supposed to be known, but some White House advisers had been urging the President to call in Harry Luce, publisher of Time, Life and Fortune, with a view to getting his support. Now, since Mrs. Luce's bitter, brilliant denunciation of the President at Chicago, they have changed their minds. . . . Howard Costigan, founder of the Washington Commonwealth Federation, has started a new movement on the West Coast called the "Party of the Pacific," and stands a chance to win a seat in Congress, come November.

Fire fighters in Oregon had to also fight a pack of wolves. How did they get so far away from the big cities?

Party Delegates Listed for Delta

The selection of delegates to county party conventions in the recent primary election will be left pretty much to county Democratic and Republican committees, although a list of delegates named by the voters has been announced by the county canvassing board.

Names of delegates elected, two from each precinct, cannot be certified because so many names of persons outside the voting precincts were included. Delegates therefore must remain largely a matter of selection by party county committees.

This will not affect the Democratic party convention, which will be held Monday in accordance with a date stipulated by state law, and before a list of elected county convention delegates was reported.

Following is the list of delegates chosen by the voters in the primary, with the first two named receiving the largest vote:

U. P. Welfare Boards In Annual Meeting Here

Directors and members of welfare boards from 9 Upper Peninsula counties gathered in Escanaba yesterday for their annual meeting, preceding the annual convention of the state organization of welfare officials to be held later this summer at Port Huron. The county welfare officials in meeting yesterday discussed welfare problems and adopted several resolutions which will be presented to the state association for consideration.

Sol Beauparlant, Iron Mountain, president of the U. P. association of welfare officials, presided at yesterday's meeting in the court house, and A. M. Gilbert, director of the welfare board of Gladstone, presided at the annual meeting.

Carl Weidenhoffer, Sault Ste. Marie; Ole Olson, Baraga county; William Stratton, Ontonagon county; Bert Vescolani, Menominee county; E. R. Nelson, Marquette county; Beauparlant and A. R. Wickstrom of Dickinson county; Herman Rahn, Dr. C. H. Fisher and Harry Trainer of Houghton county; John Keeton and William Kehoe of Alger county; George Weingartner, Rock, chairman of the Delta county welfare board; O. J. Thorsen, county board of supervisors, chairman and member of the welfare advisory committee, and A. M. Gilbert of Delta county.

Discussion indicated a strong desire on the part of county welfare directors and board members to obtain more local control in the administration of old age assistance and other supplemental aids administered under state and federal regulations.

Among the resolutions adopted were those including:

A proposal to expand existing local welfare agencies to handle the administration of postwar relief programs, with the counties "given utmost control" and state and federal agencies limiting its work to an inspection to determine that state and federal funds were being spent for the purposes for which they were appropriated.

Although admittedly somewhat outside the immediate relief field, the meeting adopted a resolution seeking to have the state planning commission allot postwar planning funds to counties on the basis of need, and without matching. It was reported to the meeting that some counties were unable to match state planning funds and might have no postwar plans ready by the November 1 deadline.

Adopted a resolution asking for the enforcement of regulations making relatives responsible for the support of certain social welfare cases.

Approved a motion directing the association officers to invite federal farm security administration leaders to a U. P. conference to assist in establishing a program for aid to farmers, so the rural relief load would be lightened.

Adopted a resolution at the suggestion of A. M. Gilbert, and endorsed by O. J. Thorsen, that the state welfare commission study the possibility of establishing and maintain a state infirmary in the Upper Peninsula, or the consolidation of the 10 existing county infirmaries to reduce cost and provide greater benefits and services to the inmates. Copies of the resolution are to be sent to U. P. county boards.

WE DON'T MIND WORKING HARD TO GET THEIR CALLS THROUGH

All of the telephone people who work at the camps know what it means to a service man to be able to call home. They don't mind working hard to get those Long Distance calls through.

Busiest time is in the evening, when most of the boys are off duty. You will help them if you "give seven to ten to the service men."

Survey Shows Shortages of Children Wear

BY ANN STEVICK
NEA Staff Correspondent

Washington.—If you have wide sheeting on your shopping list, you've just about half a chance to find it. That's shown by results of an Office of Civilian Requirements poll of what's lacking for homelife's wardrobes and linen closets. House dresses up to $1.59 and $1.69 were next on the short- and list, followed by sheets, and two dozen items of children's wear.

There's no solution to your trouble in sight if it's sheeting you want, although this survey may start something. Programs are under way to get children's clothes, housedresses selling at $1.49 and $1.69, women's slips, men's shirts and shorts ready for fall selling.

It isn't settled yet whether low prices announced on these goods will go up because of the new clause in the price control law which raises prices when necessary to give cotton-growers parity prices. If possible, a price rise will be avoided by cutting down on the finishing cost of cloth used. Maternity dresses and slips were not covered in the survey, but are about to be added to the list of special low-cost items to be made.

Members Of B&PW Hold Annual Picnic

Thirty members of the Escanaba Business and Professional Women's club enjoyed their annual summer picnic Monday evening at Bark River. The outing was held in the spacious grounds of the Frechette residence and a delicious picnic supper was served at 7 o'clock. Following the supper, a short business meeting was held.

A delightful social hour was held at the close of the meeting. The program committee, consisting of Lottie Frechette, chairman, Florence Langley, Mabel Oslund and Helen Stenberg, were in charge of the arrangements for the evening.

It was decided that the next meeting of the club during the vacation months would be held on August 21.

Worry Clinic With Case Records Of A Psychologist

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE D-202: Martha D., aged 48, is the wife of a city judge.

"I used to be quite active in civic affairs," she admitted, "and thought I still was rather extroverted."

"But three weeks ago I sent for your Compliment Club materials. Every day I have faithfully paid an honest compliment to each of three different persons."

"But last night I suddenly realized I had paid compliments to only two people. I lacked one more to keep my record straight and entitle me to the Membership Certificate in the Compliment Club."

"So I put on my hat and coat and went down the street. Finally I entered a drugstore, where I overheard a girl clerk give an excellent sales demonstration for a new brand of cosmetic."

"I complimented her and then came home. I am still eligible for Membership Certificate, and hope to complete the 30-day experiment without further trouble."

Few People Have Perseverance

"You once stated that barely 10 per cent of those who launch upon the Compliment Club experiment, ever complete the full 30 days."

"I have always been a doer or finisher of the tasks I have undertaken, for I was the oldest child in a large family. So I have vowed to be in the upper 10 per cent who win your diploma."

"Already I have profited greatly by this experiment. In the first place, I have learned that I have drawn within my shell much more than I had ever imagined."

"The fact that I ended a full day with only two compliments to outsiders, vividly showed me how aloof I have become from life. Ten years ago I could have paid 20 compliments to as many different people before nightfall, for I was much more active."

Old Age Is Psychological

"You wrote a Case Record a year or so ago about premature old age, saying that psychological soundness can attack a person even at 25 or 30, if he permits himself to withdraw from life."

"You said that a person can consciously resist this natural aging process by refusing to sever the social, business or friendship bonds that tie the young person's interest to external reality."

"Instead of becoming an introverted grandmother, with nothing much to think about beyond the mail carrier's arrival or the delivery of the evening paper, I am resolved to remain young in my mind."

"I am resisting the inertia of my body and mind, by forcing myself to keep active. Thus, I retain a greater number of interesting external connections."

You Can Rejuvenate Yourself

"You said that rejuvenation is largely a psychological matter. I am convinced that you are correct."

"Before I began your Compliment Club experiment, I was as set in my ways as many a woman of 60. Within a few weeks I have reversed this prematurity of old age and am now about as active as a woman of 35."

"I'm going to remain young in my mind, for I had a wonderful mother who never withdrew from reality. She kept her external interests and sense of humor until her death at 85 years."

"Tell your readers to enroll in the Compliment Club, and get the rest of their families or Sunday school class to do the same. It's fun!"

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 3c stamped, addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing or printing costs when you seek personal advice or one of his psychological charts.)

Church Events

Christian Science Churches

"Truth" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 23.

The Golden Text (Psalms 86: 15) is: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Isiah 25: 1): "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithful and truth."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (11): "Prayer cannot change the unalterable Truth, nor can prayer alone give us an understanding of Truth; but prayer, coupled with a fervent habitual desire to know and do the will of God, will bring us into all Truth."

Svilands Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arne Sviland, 1113 First avenue south, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday evening with a dinner and a reception for their close friends.

All the guests first assembled at the home where a reception was held. This was followed by a dinner at the Perket hotel in Bark River. The table was beautifully decorated with garden flowers and centered with a wedding cake decorated in silver and white.

As the guests assembled Miss Marie Thorsen played the wedding march, after which there was a program of group singing and toasts to Mr. and Mrs. Sviland.

After the dinner the guests returned to the Sviland home, where a purse of silver and many lovely gifts were presented to the couple.

Out-of-town guests at the dinner included Mr. Sviland's sister, Ingrid Sviland, of Chicago.

The Svilands have two sons, Irwin, who is serving with the armed forces overseas and Dale, at home.

EXTEND RURAL ROUTE 6 MILES

New Service Benefits Families On Three County Roads

Effective yesterday Gladstone rural mail route number one was extended six miles to serve families living on county roads F-12, D-2 and D-6, local postal authorities have announced. The new service increases the length of the route from 46.2 miles to 56.2 miles.

Agitation for the extension of the route was started a number of years ago, but was refused by officials in Washington until the roads had been improved. However, permission to extend the service to approximately 20 families living on these highways was received last week from the office of the assistant postmaster general.

From highway M-35 the rural route will run west a distance of two miles on county roads F-12 and D-2, and southeasterly on county road D-6 to M-35 a distance of 3.9 miles.

It will now be possible, according to local postal officials, for families living in what is known as the Chaisson location, who were formerly served on M-35 to move mail boxes back in front of their property and the mail will be delivered to them at that point.

Residents who will receive mail delivery for the first time as a result of the extension are warned that they must erect the type of box prescribed by the postoffice department in order to obtain delivery.

About 2,500 tons of broom straw to make brooms for the U. S. Army were imported early in 1944.

Mrs. Ray Nadeau, Mrs. Leo Nadeau and Mrs. William Nadeau were Gladstone visitors Thursday.

Physical Education Instructor Resigns

Announcement of the resignation of Mrs. T. L. Borg, the former Helen Mae Hedin, from the Gladstone high school faculty was made yesterday by Superintendent of Schools Wallace Cameron.

Mrs. Borg served in the local school system for the past seven and one half years as the girls' physical education instructor and a junior high science teacher. She was married recently and is residing at 415 Seventh avenue south, St. Petersburg, Florida.

The vacancy has not been filled as yet, Mr. Cameron said.

No action has been taken in regard to filling the vacancy caused by the resignation last week-end of Principal C. C. Strickland, according to Cameron.

Candidates for the position, he pointed out, must have a Master's degree in order that the school may maintain its North Central association accrediting. It is possible, he said, that there will be only a replacement in the subject field Mr. Strickland taught, social science.

Trial Horseshoe Matches Are Held

Matches were conducted Monday night to determine team pairings and handicaps for horseshoe players, who will participate in the city league, under the direction of the recreation department.

Twelve men competed in the trial matches and these players will form the nucleus for the league which will start next Monday evening. A third horseshoe court has been completed, which will enable additional players to participate, and those desiring to take part should notify the recreation department before Saturday as pairings will be made at that time for the opening matches.

The men competing Monday night were required to play three games against different opponents and the results of their averages are as follows: Fred Schram 18, Joe Sturgeon 15, Alger Strom 22, Willard Wixom 17, Buck Van Damme 25, Sylvester Schram 19, Lionel Sabourin 25, Clarence Goodman 21, Floyd Van Dale 18, Jim Cannon 22, Dick Anderson 15, Ray McDonough 20.

Pairings for the league are: Sabourin and Anderson, Van Damme-McDonough, Cannon-Wixom, Strom-Sturgeon, Goodman-Schram, F. Schram-VanDaele.

PROSECUTORS PICK SHEAHAN

17th Annual Convention Held On Mackinac Island

William J. Sheahan, prosecuting attorney of Schoolcraft county, was elevated to the presidency of the Prosecuting Attorneys' Association of Michigan, at the annual convention held on Mackinac Island.

Prosecutor Sheahan has returned from the four-day session.

Sheahan, who was elected to the second vice-president's chair by the association at its 16th annual convention last year in Detroit, succeeded William E. Dowling, prosecuting attorney of Wayne county.

Among the 250 persons attending the convention in the Grand Hotel were Atty. Gen. Herbert Rushton and his assistants, circuit court judges, county prosecutors and their assistants.

The association was established by legislative action 17 years ago.

W. S. of C. S. Meeting—The members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Mahoney, Indian Lake. Pot luck lunch will be served and each member is asked to bring her own dishes.

Youth Council Dance—There will be a Youth Council dance on Thursday evening in the old gym. Dancing will be from 8:30 until 10:30 o'clock.

Mission Circle Meeting—The regular meeting of the Mission Circle of the Bethel Baptist church will be held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Oscar Swanson.

Mrs. Mattilda Gustafson will be the assisting hostess. All members are urged to be present.

Lions Roundup—Several members of the Manistique Lions club and their guests are planning to attend the Lions roundup this afternoon and evening at the Dutch Mill near Rapid River. A full program of games and fun has been arranged, featured by a chicken supper this evening.

Guest speaker at the Rotary club luncheon Monday was Joseph Heiman, Schoolcraft county agricultural agent. His topic was farming and its future possibilities.

Heiman pointed out that in 1930 there were more cattle in the county than in 1940. However, stock herds are being built up rapidly. In the future, he contended, crops in this area will be more varied than in the past. There will be more fruit and more root crops. Markets too will expand. With improved transportation in the post-war period he pointed out, the market area will be greatly increased.

This area has much to offer to returning veterans who wish to return to the farm. There is land here not under the plow which is tillable. With the increased market area and diversified crops, ex-servicemen will find many opportunities here.

More than 1,800 fats and oils are known, not counting petroleum and essential oils used in perfumes.

CARD MANAGER NOT CONFIDENT

BY FRITZ HOWELL
New York, July 18 (AP)—With the St. Louis Cardinals boasting a Tuesday evening edge of 11½ games, everyone admits the 1942 and 1943 National league pennant winners are a cinch for the 1944 flag.

Everyone, that is, except Manager Billy Southworth. Billy the kid, cornered with the question: "Are you ready to claim the pennant, in view of your long lead?" Looked startled for a minute and then answered: "Goodness gracious, no! We are hopeful, of course, but this is no season to be making predictions."

"If I had some of my old teams, with a good first-line defense and offense, backed up by substitutes almost on a par with the regulars, maybe I could say we'd win after piling up a lead like we have."

"But we are certain to lose some men through injuries and calls to the service, and you can't tell what will happen. George Mauer, who won 11 and lost two for us, is gone. Fred Schmidt, relief pitcher and a good one, and Stan Musial, the league's leading hitter, have passed their induction examinations and are eligible for call at any time. We'd certainly miss fellows like that."

"We aren't claiming anything at this stage. We're just out there every day, trying to win every game, trying to please the fans, and hoping for the best. Of course, I'll admit we are in a pretty good position, with the season more than half gone."

Billy thought a long time before answering a question as to which team he'd like to oppose in the World Series, then said:

"Well, we aren't in the series yet. If we get in, it won't matter much about the opposition, for we know it will be tough. That American race is a 'dilly,' and you can bet those Browns have something to stay up there. Those Yankees are coming strong, too, and they'll be hard to beat. But then, the Yanks are always tough to beat."

Southworth said the All-Star game, in which he piloted the National leaguers to a 7-1 win over the Americans, was one of the "most satisfying" contests he had ever had a hand in.

"We were red hot, and no team in the world could have beaten us that night," he declared.

Tigers Take 6 To 5 Decision In Eleventh

BY WATSON SPOELSTRA

Detroit, July 18 (AP)—Jimmy Outlaw's fourth hit of the game, a single to center field, scored Joe Hoover from second base in the 11th inning tonight to give the Detroit Tigers a 6 to 5 victory over the Washington Senators in a twilight game before 10,666 spectators.

At the same time Southpaw Hal Newhouser, who pitched one hit relief ball for three innings, gained his 14th victory. The triumph gave the Tigers an 8 to 3 season edge over the fourth place

HAEGG'S RIVAL BREAKS RECORD

Stockholm, July 18, (AP)—Arne Andersson of Sweden set a new world record for the mile tonight, running it over the Malmoe track in 4:01.6, or three full seconds under the recognized mark of 4:04.6 set in 1942 by his countryman, Gunder Haegg.

Andersson's sensational time also clinched a full second off the 4:02.6 mile he ran July 1, 1943, which received recognition of the International Amateur Athletic Federation last February.

The 28-year-old school teacher also held the 1500 meter record of 3:45 until July 7 of this year, when Haegg turned in a 3:43 effort in nosing him out. Andersson was clocked in 3:44 in that losing race. Andersson came back last Friday to defeat Haegg over the 1500 meter route, but the time was 3:48.4, far off the record race.

SECOND PLACE LOST BY BUGS

Homer With Bases Foul Helps Giants To 5-2 Win Over Pirates

New York, July 18 (AP)—Phil Weintraub's 12th homer with the bases full in the third inning gave Bill Voiselle his 12th triumph and dropped Pittsburgh out of second place tonight as the New York Giants defeated the Pirates 5 to 2 before 24,283 paying fans.

The Pirates got their two runs on passes to Babe Dahlgren in the seventh and ninth, with Al Lopez' infield out scoring Babe the first time and Vince DiMaggio's single doing the job in the last frame.

Billy Jurges started the grand 5-run spurge in the third with a single. Voiselle sacrificed, Dan Gardella and Hal Luby singled for one run and then Joe Medwick was safe on Dahlgren's boot to fill the bases. Weintraub followed with his clean-up swat.

Voiselle had a no-hitter until Frankie Zak beat out a bunt with two gone in the fifth. Pittsburgh—000 000 101—2 3 1 New York—005 000 003—5 5 1 Ostermuller, Roe and Lopez; Voiselle and Lombardi.

First 4 Craft Finish In Race To Mackinac

Mackinac Island, Mich., July 18 (AP)—Although only four craft had completed the 330-mile run in the annual Chicago-Mackinac sailing classic, the 52-foot "Q" class Falcon II, of the Chicago Yacht club, appeared to have a safe hold on first place honors in the race.

The Falcon, owned by Clare Udell, crossed the finish line here nearly 25 minutes behind Tar Baby, a 58-foot cutter owned by H. C. Griffin, also of Chicago, but went into first place on the handicap allowance.

The Falcon's elapsed time for the race was 72:11.13, but this was scaled down to 59 hours 53 minutes and 7 seconds by the handicap. In second place by virtue of the handicap allowance was Semitar, owned by Wm. S. Faurot, of the Chicago Yacht club, which finished in 72:33.12, but got a corrected time of 60 hours 15 minutes and 6 seconds.

Tar Baby had an elapsed time of 71 hours 46 minutes and 38 seconds, but the handicap reduced her time only to 63:38.54 which was good for at least a temporary third place.

Hostess II, a 54-foot yawl which won the annual Port Huron-Mackinac race two years ago as the property of C. W. Beck, Jr., was fourth in today, with an elapsed time of 70:37.25 and a corrected timing of 66:28.20. The boat now is owned by Kenneth Stanford of the Chicago Yacht club.

Thirty-one boats started in the Chicago-Mackinac race Saturday. Additional arrivals this evening made no change in the early standing of the first four to finish. The final tabulation of the finish of the Port Huron-Mackinac race left Vitesse II, piloted by Cleve Welling undisturbed in first place in the racing-cruising class, and Bangalore, skippered by Bud Doyle as winner in the racing class.

The Sports Parade

By Ken Gunderman

The organization of two new baseball leagues in Delta county is a healthy start for the growth of the national sport in this area, particularly since both leagues place emphasis upon youth. The Twin City twilight league of six teams, three each from Escanaba and Gladstone, will be composed almost entirely of 'teen-age youngsters. The other league is a four-team wheel with representatives from Escanaba, Gladstone, Garden and Bark River.

The twilight league setup appears to be too ambitious for a beginning and it may run into a lot of headaches, although I hope that I am wrong. It would be surprising, however, if the two cities produce three junior league teams each that would hold together on a twice-a-week basis for the remainder of the summer season. My guess is that this league will require a reorganization and a reduction to a four team circuit before long. There is a transportation problem involved that will prove troublesome.

One of the rules established for this newly organized league, prohibiting a team from adding players to the lineup unless a member has left the city or enters the armed forces, will tend to stifle this league and this rule will have to be junked early if the league is to have any chance to survive. This rule fails to comprehend the manpower problem and is directly opposed to the principle of creating new interest in baseball. An ironclad observance of this rule would force the league to fold up within a month, at the latest.

POSTPONED TILT GOES TO CARDS

Brooklyn, July 18 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals dropped into Ebbsfield Field tonight to play off a postponed game and picked up a 5 to 0 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers as Max Lanier held the opposition to four hits. Dixie Walker collected two safeties to climb into a tie for the league hitting leadership with Stan Musial, who was held to one blow in three times at bat. Each player emerged from the contest with a mark of .354.

The Cards made all their runs off Hal Gregg who was relieved by Tom Warren in the fourth. Warren, making his first appearance since being recalled from Montreal, allowed only one hit in the fifth. It was the Dodgers' first appearance at home since their disastrous road trip in which they dropped fifteen out of sixteen games. Despite their poor showing on the tour they drew 9,249 paid admissions. St. Louis—201 200 000—5 7 0 Brooklyn—000 000 000—0 4 0 Lanier and O'Dea; Gregg, Warren and Owen.

BROWNS CRUSH RIVAL YANKEES

Three Homers Included In 12-Hit Attack For 8 To 0 Victory

St. Louis, July 18, (AP)—With a booming 12 hit attack which included three home runs, the league leading St. Louis Browns overpowered their second place rivals, the New York Yankees 8 to 0 tonight in the first of a crucial four-game series.

Bob Muncrief allowed the one powerful Bronx Bombers only six hits as he defeated them for the second time in his five seasons in the American league.

Milt Byrnes, Gene Moore and Chet Laabs hit four base blows which accounted for six of the St. Louis runs. Rookie Steve Roser started for the Yanks and was relieved in the seventh by Johnny Johnson.

Score by innings:
New York—000 000 000—0 6 0
St. Louis—130 001 30x—8 12 0
Roser, Johnson and Garbark; Muncrief and Hayworth.

Birdseye Team Is Horseshoe Winner

The Birdseye barnyard golfers had little trouble with the Rivet Heaters in the opening matches of the newly organized horseshoe league at Royce Park on Monday night. The star of the night was Ray Rabitaille of the Birdseye who won two matches by a shut out and allowed only one point in the third one. He won all four of his matches as did Don Sullivan of the same team. Ettenhofer was the only Rivet heater to win more than one match the final score was the Birdseye 14, Rivet Heaters 6.

The temperature at Marmansk is about the same as that of Moscow, 930 miles farther south.

Rally Falls Short And Indians Edge Athletics, 4 and 3

Cleveland, July 18 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics rallied for three runs in the 11th inning to tie the Indians, but Al Smith was able to put down the threat as Cleveland's Indians emerged with a 4 to 3 triumph.

The veteran Tribe southpaw had a five-hit shutout going into the final stanza, but the A's combined three hits and an error to produce three tallies.

The Indians collected three runs in the fourth on a walk and four singles and added what proved to be the deciding marker in the sixth.

Uppay CIO's Rout Northsiders, 147

The CIO's of Gladstone trounced the Escanaba Northsiders, 14 to 7, in the first game to be played in the newly organized Twilight baseball league.

Gladstone put the game on ice in the first four innings and then added four more tallies for good measure. Fielding was ragged on both sides there being a total of 11 errors.

Schnee and Lundin formed the winning battery while Perry and Dwyer and Wood worked for the losers. Ness and Richards umpired.

LATE SUPPORT TRIMS LOSSES

New York, July 18 (AP)—The stock market extended its technical correction today but selling never was particularly urgent and a little late support trimmed extreme losses running to more than 100 points for steel, motor and pivotal industries.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off 4.5 of a point at the close, the largest recession in about three months. It still was a broad market, 961 issues registering. Of these 615 were down, 156 up and 145 unchanged. Transfers totaled 1,278,760 shares compared with 1,482,440 the day before.

Conspicuous casualties included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, N. Y. Central, Southern Pacific, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Oliver arm, Douglas Aircraft, Eastman Kodak, American Can, Anaconda, Allied Chemical and Certainated common and preferred. Minor declines were held by Willys-Overland, Omnibus Corp. and Sperry.

BOND RANGE NARROW
New York, July 18 (AP)—The bond market maneuvered in a narrow range today with the trend none too certain as any group except the low-yields and utilities, both of which showed progress.

Most of the popular trading mediums in the rail section ended with small losses or unchanged, although individually favored issues kept abreast of the advancing contingents. U. S. governments were neglected for the most part. Sales of $8,831,900 compared with $8,153,000 on Monday.

Investment bonds were circles that the Bethlehem Steel Corp. was preparing to refund its outstanding 3 1/2 per cent convertible debentures. No actual issue brought out modest offerings of other bonds at close to the call price of 104. The 3s of 1960 were offered at 103.50. Those of 1965 and 1970 were offered at 103.50 and 103.50 respectively.

At the close were, among others, Norfolk & Western 8 1/2, Edison 3 3/4, Rio Grande Western collateral 4 1/2, Frisco 4 1/2, U. S. Steel & P. & W. 4 1/2, and Western Maryland 5 1/2.

Australia 6 1/2, Colombia 6 1/2, Panama 7 1/2, and Dominican Republic 5 1/2 advanced 9 3/4 points to 97 on sale of one bond.

CHICAGO PRICES

CHICAGO BUTTER
Chicago, July 18 (AP)—(WFA)—The butter market was firm and unchanged at OPA ceilings today.

CHICAGO EGGS
Chicago, July 18 (AP)—(WFA)—Eggs weak; large specials, 39 to 39 1/2; large extras, 37 to 41; medium extras, 35 1/2 to 34 1/2; standard, 33 to 34; current receipts, 32 1/2 to 34; dirties, 28 to 30; chicks, 27 to 29 1/2.

CHICAGO POTATOES
Chicago, July 18 (AP)—(WFA)—Potatoes, arrivals 91, on track 201, total U. S. shipments 227; supplies moderate in the north; long whites demand moderate, market firm for best stock; for red stock demand good, market strong; for Missouri and Kansas cobbles demand improving at lower prices; California long whites, U. S. No. 1, 1.55 to 1.50; commercial, 1.55 to 1.42 1/2; Missouri cobbles, 1.55 to 1.50; good quality, 2.10 to 3.15; Kansas cobbles, fair to generally good quality, 2.00 to 2.35.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, July 18 (AP)—Wheat futures slipped to the lowest level since early this month as demand for export wheat, 1.5-4 cents today as the grain market reacted to rumors of peace in Europe and indications of Japanese alarm over developments in the Pacific.

At the close wheat was 1-8 higher to 5-8 1/2; corn, 1/4 higher to 1-1/4; soybeans, 1/4 higher to 1-1/4; oats, 1/4 higher to 1-1/4; rye, 1/4 higher to 1-1/4; barley, 1/4 higher to 1-1/4.

Scattered showers were reported in parts of the corn belt but they were too light to do much good. The trade in wheat and precipitation was forecast for tonight and tomorrow. With drought conditions persisting in Illinois and other states in the eastern half of the belt, the trade is watching the corn crop closely because the yield will be an important factor in determining the price of other grains.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
Chicago, July 18 (AP)—(WFA)—Salable hogs 17,000, total 21,000; moderately active; weights 270 lbs. and down steady, heavier weights and sows steady to mostly 19 higher; good and choice, 12.50 to 13.75 to 13.80, top 13.85; good and choice 280 to 300 lbs., 12.50 to 13.40; 300 to 330 lbs., 12.50 to 13.00; 330 to 350 lbs., 12.50 to 13.00; light weights to 11.00; around 3,000 held over; shippers took 1,500.

Salable cattle 4,500; salable calves 1,000; general market active, largely fed steer run, trade strong to 15 higher; medium and good grades showed most advance; extra good steers there being a total of 11 errors.

Schnee and Lundin formed the winning battery while Perry and Dwyer and Wood worked for the losers. Ness and Richards umpired.

CHICAGO CATTLE
Chicago, July 18 (AP)—(WFA)—Cattle: 1,000; mostly steady to 15 higher; spring lambs and shorn ewes in scant supply; odd lots good and choice native springers 14.00 to 14.50, with hock discounted 1.00; few medium and good springers 12.00 to 13.50; light cull and cull ewes to 9.00 and below; odd lots short native ewes 4.00 to 5.75 according to grade.

TRADING TRENDS

New York, July 18 (AP)—Stocks: Heavy; technical correction extended. Bonds: Irregular; rails in supply. Cotton: Lower; commission house and local liquidation.

Wheat: Weak. Hedging, liquidation. Rye: Weak. Peace rumors, liquidation. Hogs: Moderately active. Heavy weights 10 cents higher. Top $13.85. Cattle: Generally active. Strong to 15 cents up. Top $17.50.

The Roving Reporter

came out of a doorway and started up the street. The excited soldier yelled at him and began cursing, and the medic broke into a run. They ran past the tanks together, and up the street a way they ducked into a doorway.

On the corner just across the street from where we were standing was a smashed pillbox. It was in a cut-away corner like the entrances to some of our corner drugstores at home, except that instead of there being a door there was a pillbox of reinforced concrete, with gun slits.

The tank boys had shot it to extinction and then moved their tank up even with it to get the range of the next pillbox. That one was about a block ahead, set in a niche in the wall of a building. That's what the boys had been shooting at when their tank was hit. They knocked it out, however, before being knocked out themselves.

For an hour there was a lull in the fighting. Nobody did anything about a third pillbox, around the corner. Our second tank pulled back a little and just waited. Infantrymen worked their way up to second-story windows and fired their rifles up the side street without actually seeing anything to shoot at.

Now and then blasts from a 20-MM. gun would splatter the buildings around us. Then our second tank would blast back in that general direction, over the low roofs, with its machine gun. There was a lot of dangerous-sounding noise, but I don't think anybody on either side got hit.

Then we saw coming up the street, past the wrecked German truck I spoke of, a group of German soldiers. An officer walked in front, carrying a Red Cross flag on a stick. Bob Capa, the photographer, braved the dangerous funnel at the end of the side street where the damaged tank stood, leaping past it and on down the street to meet the Germans.

First he snapped some pictures of them. Then, since he speaks German, he led them on back to our side of the invisible fence of battle. Eight of them were carrying two litters bearing two wounded German soldiers. The others walked behind with their hands up. They went on past us to the hospital. We assumed that they were from the second knocked-out pillbox.

I didn't stay to see how the remaining pillbox was knocked out. But I suppose our second tank eventually pulled up to the corner, turned, and let the pillbox have it. After that the area would be clear of everything but snipers.

The infantry, who up till then had been forced to keep in doorways, would now continue up the street and poke into the side streets and into the houses until everything was clear.

That's how a strong point in a city is taken. At least that's how ours was taken. You don't always have tanks to help, and you don't always do it with so little shedding of blood.

But the city was already crumbling when we started in on this strong point, which was one of the last, and they didn't hold on too long. But we didn't know that when we started.

I hope this has given you a faint idea of what street fighting is like. If you got out of it much more than a headful of confusion then you've got out of it exactly the same thing as the soldiers who do it.

Wallace Unable To Get Along With Politicians

BY MARQUIS CHILDS
Chicago—The intriguers and connivers who are yapping at Henry Wallace's heels serve merely to increase his stature. A shy, shambling figure, he stands tall above the prairie that is his home. Whether he can save himself in the convention is very doubtful. Whether he should try to hold on to an office that has brought him nothing but grief and may bring him disaster to my way of thinking, even more doubtful.

His strength lies in his ability to catch hold of men's minds: to fire the heart and stir the imagination. The very hatreds he arouses are tribute to that capacity, for those who hate him recognize he is the prophet of a truly Democratic America.

Childs

An Inept Politician
There is about him something of an earlier America. Walt Whitman would have recognized him as an original American. Wallace would have been at home at Brook Farm, in that New England which welcomed ideas and ideals.

When he tries to operate on the level of the machine run politician he immediately looks inept and unhappy. That, it seems to me, is the threat to Wallace's usefulness as a thinker and creator here in Chicago.

His chances of success in an open convention fight are, as of this moment, slim. Getting down and fighting it out, aided by such lieutenants as Senator Guffey of Pennsylvania, he is bound to lose stature. In that scrounging match he will look like any politician.

If President Roosevelt were to insist on Wallace beyond any question, that would be another matter. That's the way it was in 1940 when belatedly, over the private wire from the White House to Harry Hopkins' room in the Blackstone Hotel, word came that it was to be Wallace.

Favored Hull First
As a matter of fact, and the president has let this be known during the course of the present controversy, Wallace was not his first choice four years ago. First on the White House list was Cordell Hull, who said an emphatic, no thank you. Second was Justice James F. Byrnes, subsequently made war mobilizer. Byrnes was passed over for other reasons.

Wallace was third on the list. At a nod from his chief, to whom he has given complete loyalty, the slow-spoken secretary of agriculture accepted a place on the National ticket.

The professional politicians didn't like it at all. They looked on Wallace as a queer bird likely to do almost anything.

Nothing has happened to alter their prejudice and this time they are confident they have unhelmed him.

Lost To Jesse Jones
As vice-president, whenever Wallace has been enmeshed in power politics, he has come off badly. The most unfortunate instance was his quarrel a year ago with Jesse Jones over control of the then board of economic warfare.

With a ruthless power politician like Jones, the unhappy vice-president had little chance. Jones had power through his connections in Congress and particularly with the southern bloc, and he turned that power on the White

Civilian Defense—Jacques P. Gachl of the field staff, Michigan office of Civilian Defense, was in Escanaba yesterday consulting with members of the local Civilian Defense organization. His work includes the investigation, aiding and assisting the work of the local councils, and securing information on protective service organizations and general civilian defense structure.

Total Vote—The total Republican and Democratic vote in the recent primary election in Delta county has been reported as follows: Republican 2240; Democratic 1727. The figures represent the total highest vote cast for any office on either ticket.

Name Omitted—Through error, the name of Mrs. Irene Gallagher of Escanaba was omitted from a list of Democratic county committee vice chairmen given to the Press Monday.

RATION ISSUES WILL BE PUBLIC

Information May Be Secured At Local Board

Under new regulations announced by the Office of Price Administration, the public will be given information on gasoline rationing issued by the local war price and rationing board, it was announced yesterday.

Such information, however, may be secured only by personal appearance at the local ration board office and queries received by mail or telephone will be rejected.

In the past the information concerning the issuance of gasoline rationing was restricted and was not available to the public. The change in this policy was made by the OPA in an effort to "prevent some of the past chiseling habits of some applicants."

The new directive authorizes local ration boards to make available the amounts of rations issued to any person upon personal requests for such information.

The local board also reported yesterday that numerous applications are being received for renewal of A books, indicating that many motorists are assuming that new ration books will be distributed for validation July 22. The present A books were validated July 22, 1943 and normally would have expired July 21 this year. Actually, however, the No. 12 stamps, the last in the present A book, will not expire until Sept. 21, 1944. The change resulted from the decrease in ration allowances for A book holders, permitting only two gallons per week instead of three.

No applications for renewal of basic A rations are being accepted now, the local ration board reported. Announcement will be made later when the new books are to be distributed.
